

Assignment 6

For this assignment take any insert forms that you created in assignment 5 and create a search page for the tables that were used. You do not need to search the SLO information for this project, but you do need searches for all other information entered. When complete, you will place your code in a lastname_assignment6 folder and upload to both the istwebclass server as well as zip the folder and upload into D2L.